

The 26th International Shipwreck Conference

SHIPWRECKS, DIVING AND MARINE ARCHAEOLOGY

SATURDAY 9th FEBRUARY 2008

Robbins Conference Centre, University of Plymouth

Invited speakers include:

Mark Wingett/Mike Bowyer

WW2 Armed Trawlers or
"Churchill's Pirates" (the story of
HMS. Caxton Wyke and the sinking of the U-16)

Paola Palma

A scientific strategy for in situ stabilization of wreck

Savas Karakas

The lost submarines of the Dardanelles campaign "Gallipoli"

Richard Larn and Alan Jones

Mapping our shipwreck heritage

Selcuk Kolay

WW2 U-boats off the Turkish
Black Sea coast

Natalie Elliot/Jason Strickland

The future of Red Sea wrecks

Open 09:00 Close 18:00 Tickets £15.00 (£10.00 students)

For more details, directions and information about the conference, visit: www.shipwreckconference.org

The International Shipwreck Conference is organized by IMASS (the International Maritime Archaeology & Shipwreck Society)

Please note that the programme may change at short notice.