

International Shipwreck Conference

Saturday 6th February 2010

Robbins Conference Centre
University of Plymouth

Shipwrecks, Diving and Marine Archaeology

SPEAKERS

(in alphabetical order)

Dante Bartoli – Investigating a 2nd Century B.C. shipwreck off Capraia, Italy

Sean Kingsley - HMS Victory, First Rate Ship of the Line, sank 1744, in the English Channel

Innes McCartney - HMS Audacious, WWI Super-Dreadnought, sank 1914, off Donegal, Ireland

David Mearns - HMAS Sydney, WWII Light Cruiser, sank 1941 off Western Australia

John Riley - Modelling Shipwrecks, constructing isometric projections of wreck sites

Jim Tyson – Discovery of Britain's premiere Bronze Age wreck site off Salcombe, Devon still only £15

The International Shipwreck Conference is organised by the International Maritime Archaeology and Shipwreck Society who are divers, shipwreck enthusiasts and archaeologists

For more information visit www.shipwreckconference.org or contact Neville on nevilleoldham@btinternet.com